Rizzini Grand Regal

The due is in the name, as they say. This latest addition to the Rizzini Round Body range is 'grand' in so many ways. It shares the graceful features of the Regal 'de Luxe', such as the long trigger guard and steel grip cap, but has a number of distinctive additions which lift it into a higher category. Most noticeable amongst these is the long, 'Boss' style forend iron which gives the forend a truly classic appearance; the forend is also fitted with a beautiful hand engraved steel forend tip, and the forend itself is framed by fluted half ribs on each side. The wood work on the Grand Regal is oil finished, highly figured grade 4 walnut and, as with all Rizzini shotguns, a fully bespoke option is available to take into account the client's specific measurements. It is hard to see how this model could be improved upon.
